

Demoleus

50 mm

Chequered Swallowtail

Chequered Swallowtail

Papilio demoleus

Though widespread across Australia, this beautiful butterfly is more an inland species than coastal, and not particularly abundant in the ACT and southern New South Wales. It flies quickly, pausing momentarily to take nectar, unless it is cold, and it needs to warm up, as this one was.

